This is sure to be an incredibly insightful event-we look forward to seeing you there!

Fun fact: Each panel fulfills an Associate Requirement!

A Conversation with Katharine Weymouth

The Washington Post

A Conversation with Katharine Weymouth, '88
CEO of the Washington Post

DATE: Thursday, April 15th | TIME: 6:00-6:45 PM
LOCATION: Ticknor Lounge

Please join us for an intimate conversation with Harvard College Alumnus Katharine Weymouth to hear how her experiences at Harvard shaped her career path.

She will be discussing the challenges and opportunities within the world of media and publishing and offer insight into how she went from a Harvard Undergraduate to one of only a handful of women to run a major national publication.

Please RSVP to Tracy.Jasper@gmail.com

If you are interested in attending an exclusive meet & greet with Ms. Weymouth from 5:30-6:00 pm please fill out the form sent over the WIB-Associates list by 11:59 pm on Monday, April 12th. You will be notified of your acceptance by Wednesday April 14th.

"How To Be a Great Summer Analyst" Event

Morgan Stanley's "How to Be a Great Analyst Event"
DATE: Thursday, April 22nd | TIME: 7:00-8:30 PM
Location: Emerson 105

HUWIB is co-sponsoring an event with Morgan Stanley on how to be a great summer analyst and succeed as a finance intern on Thursday April 22nd from 7:00-8:30pm that will begin in Emerson 105. All those who have secured a summer internship or a full-time position in finance are encouraged to attend. It will be a great event to prepare you for your internship or full-time position as well as a chance to celebrate the end of the recruiting season. Finale desserts will be served.

If you are interesting in attending you need to send a copy of your resume in PDF format via email to ngandhi@fas.harvard.edu with the subject line "MS Recruiting Season Finale." Please send your resume by Thursday April 15th to secure your place as space is limited.

If you have any questions please email ngandhi@fas.harvard.edu

Annual New York Trip this Week

This week, the Ninth Annual HUWIB New York Exploratory Trip takes place on April 15-16th. 40 HUWIB members will have the opportunity to meet exciting professionals including the editor-in-chief of Cosmopolitan and the producer of the Times Square New Year's Eve Ball Drop. This all-expenses paid trip provides a fantastic chance to explore a variety of industries with companies including the W Hotel, Citi, and Ralph Lauren. The trip is promised to be a fantastic learning opportunity for all!

Corporate Mentorship Launch Recap

On Saturday, April 10th, participants of the Corporate Mentorship Program gathered together for the first time in the first floor of the SOCH to celebrate the launch of the program for 2010. Marina Mainescu and Grace Sun, co-directors and members of the Corporate Development Committee, started off the evening with some opening remarks; our guest speaker, Susan Marine from Harvard's Women's Center, then gave attendees advice and tips on how to maintain a healthy and mutually beneficial mentor-mentee relationship. All in all, the Corporate Mentorship Launch event was a great success and we hope to hear amazing stories from our mentor-mentee pairs in the near future.

Introducing the IBC Campus Ambassador Program

Do you have friends at other schools interested in business? If so, nominate them to be a Campus Ambassador for this year's IBC!

Campus Ambassadors will work closely with the IBC marketing team to promote IBC at their respective schools. They will be responsible for publicizing IBC on their campus and will serve as the liaisons for their schools on the day of IBC. Perks for Campus Ambassadors will include: access to special panels, special networking opportunities, a waived registration fee, and the opportunity to collaborate with Harvard's IBC team!

If you have a friend who may be interested, please send her name and e-mail address to tracy.jasper@gmail.com
